Christian Education Centre Planned For Haliburton

Workmen are busy this week tearing down the old Haliburton United Church Christian Education Centre here which was recently gutted by fire. What is left of the old building is being demolished to make way for a new one.

Present plans call for a new Christian Education Centre and Sunday School, with construction to start in the very near future. The new building, which will cost $24,000.00, will be built in the same location as the old one, next to the present United Church. A tunnel will connect the church with the new education centre. The old building had been standing for 90 years.

Canada Manpower, under the Local Initiatives Program for non-profit organizations are giving a grant of $11,000.00 to be used for labour on the building. The new building has to be completed by May 31 in order to qualify for the grant.

Many community organizations will be holding their meetings there.

The Building Committee consists of Ronald J. Curry as Chairman, D. B. "Joe" Iles as Vice-Chairman, Mrs. Pat Thorne as Secretary, and Ken Wilson as Treasurer. Other members on the committee are Walter Webb, Charles Tyler, Frank McIntyre, Gerald Barry, Jim Inglis, Cecil Bailey, Pauline Brohm, Dorothy Way, Jan Shipley, Irene Bailey and John Peel.

Sister Loretta To Speak

Sister Loretta will be the key person in a number of meetings and church services from Friday through to Monday.

Sister Loretta was born in Toronto in 1936, and she is one of nine children. She went to Teachers' College in 1958, and entered Saint Joseph's Community in Toronto in 1959. Eight years later she made her final vows and moved to the Community's Indian Mission in Hazelton, British Columbia, where she taught grades 5, 6 and 7 for two-and-a-half years. Health forced her to return to Toronto.

It was at this time in her life that, as she puts it, she began to "badger" people, both inside and outside the Community, to allow her to work in the prisons. This was not the first time she had considered prison work, but was when she began in earnest to find a way into this specialized ministry. It was a United Church minister, the Reverend Robert Guiliano, who finally consented to train Sister Loretta. He was able then to arrange for her to work with an Anglican priest, the Reverend Fred Gosse, in Kingston for a year.

That was the beginning. Since then, Sister Loretta has been at the forefront of an amazing ministry in the Prison for Women at Kingston and at the Collins Bay Penitentiary. In a recent letter to the Reverend Frank Ford, Rector of the Parish of Haliburton, she says quite simply, "I have been here ever since, and I hope to stay put."

Sister Loretta's visit to Haliburton offers an opportunity for her to renew acquaintances with the Reverend Noel McNeill whom she met last summer when Noel was studying in Kingston. Noel extended an invitation to her so that we might learn more about the charismatic emphasis that is becoming more evident in church people of many denominations. Some readers will recall an earlier guest to the Full Gospel Lighthouse here, the Reverend Gerry McCormack, a Roman Catholic priest, who does similar work in the prisons.

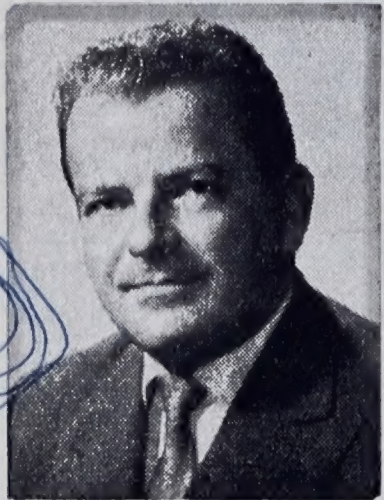

The complete schedule of Sister Loretta's public meetings and services appears on the Church Page in this issue.

Ontario Hydro Area Manager Speaker At Rotary Meeting

Mr. Doug Campbell, Area Manager for Ontario Hydro at Minden, was the guest speaker at the Rotary Club of Haliburton

Hydro men are while working on a project.

Mr. Campbell was introduced by Gerald Dawson and thanked on behalf of the club by Bill Emmerson.

meeting held in the United Church basement on Thursday night last.

Mr. Campbell gave a very interesting talk on the development of hydro in Haliburton County and presented an excellent showing of slides on the use of helicopters and how important they are in the building of hydro lines. The members were especially interested in the slides showing Ontario Hydro workers from Haliburton County building new lines right here in this area.

We were interested to note just how safety conscious the

Rolly Pollys Win Hockey Game

Well, the big hockey game is all over and the question of who has the best team has been answered. After all the feuding, the Rotary Club Rolly Pollys gave the Haliburton Chalkdusters an education of just how to play hockey as they posted an 8-3 victory over the teachers in an exhibition game played at the Haliburton Arena last Friday night.

Jim Scheffee led the Rolly Pollys with four goals. Scotty LaRue had two and single markers went to Ken Wilson and Jack Brohm. The Chalkduster goals came from the sticks of Bill Johnston, Roy Hoare and McKie Bryden.

Dick Schell did an outstanding job in the net for the Rotarians and John Rouble in goal for the Chalkdusters is wishing he had stayed at home. Rumours are flying that he would like to be traded to the Rotary team.

Art Ward of the Rolly Pollys has been given a game suspension for showing up late.

Cub Week In Haliburton

During the last two weeks the Haliburton Cubs have been busy in several events to mark Boy Scout Week.

Cub Snowshoe Tramp

On a cold and windy Saturday a group of Cubs, along with Cubmaster Len Salvatori and Assistant Cubmaster Walter Webb, set out on a snowshoe tramp. After travelling across country to a swamp area where the wind factor was nil, each group of boys proceeded to light a fire. Although the boys found it difficult to find material in the deep snow to light their fires, all groups finally succeeded and were able to boil water and toast their sandwiches. The younger boys, Jeff Dawson and Steven Ford, found snowshoeing difficult at first but adapted quickly. All are already looking forward to next year's annual trek.

Cub Snowmobile Trip

On Saturday, February 12, a total of 18 snowmobiles left the Scout Hall here about 1:00 p.m. for a trip to the Scout Reserve at Lake Kennibik. This trip was organized by Cubmaster Len Salvatori and Assistant Cubmaster Walter Webb. The Cubs and their fathers set out and crossed Mud Lake, Drag Lake and East Lake to the Camp Sumac Road and Kennaway Road to Lake Kennibik. There, after building a fire, hot tea was enjoyed by the fathers and the boys were more than ready for their lunch, before the trip back home. By 5:30 all had arrived home safely after a beautiful, sunny day, with no troubles on the trail.

Cub Church Parade

Last Sunday morning, in sub-zero weather, all of the Cubs and Leaders assembled at the Royal Canadian Legion Hall and from there paraded to St. George's Anglican Church. There they were greeted and made very welcome by Reverend Ford. When it was time for the Sunday School to retire, the Cubs were invited to join the different classes in their age groups and they enjoyed fellowship together. Meanwhile, the Cub Leaders and the members of the Group Committee enjoyed an inspiring sermon by Reverend Ford. After the service the Cubs marched back to the Legion Hall for dismissal.

Father and Son Banquet

The highlight of Cub Week in Haliburton was the Father and Son Banquet put on by the Scout sponsors, the Royal Canadian Legion.

Mr. Murray Fearrey, acting as master of ceremonies, led in the singing of "O Canada" and Reverend Ford said grace. The fathers and boys then sat down to a delicious roast beef dinner which was prepared by the Legion ladies.

After the dinner, Legion President Roy Bates gave an address of welcome. He stated that the Legion was proud to be a part of scouting in Haliburton and asked that more fathers take part in the Scout activities.

Reeve Roy Brohm brought greetings from the Municipality of Dysart et al and stated that fathers should set a good example for the boys so that they, too, could grow up and live a good life.

Murray then introduced the Scout Committee which consists of Lance Easton - Chairman, Howard Roberts - Secretary-Treasurer, and Earl Shipley and Don Lloyd who are Committee members; and also Scout Leaders Len Salvatori, Walter Webb, Gordon Everall and Terry Barnum.

The Leaders then presented last year's Cub winners with their silver spoons and prizes. Pack "A" winners were Sixer Mike Scheffee, Jeff McKinnon, Tony Scheffee, Peter Scheffee, Bradley Luck and Keith Smith; and in Pack "B" the boys were Michael Wright, Kevin Barnum, Tom Moore, Dean Austin and Paul Madden. Prizes were given to the Cubs selling the most Scout Calendars, and these included Andrew Hodgson and Mike Rae from Pack "A" and Dean Austin

Board Of Education Briefs

At a meeting of the Haliburton County Board of Education on Tuesday, February 29, 1972, Mrs. Helen McCracken, present Chef's Helper at the Haliburton Highlands Secondary School, was appointed Chef. The members are pleased that Mrs. McCracken will provide a continuity at the cafeteria, following the resignation of a fine employee, Mr. Mark Schell, and they are confident she will do a good job.

It was also decided to make a change in the Kindergarten policy for the 1972-73 school year. Commencing in September of 1972 Kindergarten instruction will be on a full day basis, every other school day. This means that in Minden and Haliburton one Kindergarten class will come one day and the second class will come on the alternate day. At Cardiff, where there is one class, it will be operated every other day. This change will result in a saving of approximately $30,000 per year in transportation costs.

Good Wishes Extended On Retirement

After a decade of service to the Townships of Anson, Hindon and Minden, Mrs. Anne K. Dawson retired on February 29, 1972. Mrs. Dawson served as the Assistant Clerk to the late Mr. Gordon Bibby and to the present Clerk-Treasurer, Mr. Richard Parisotto. Mrs. Dawson had assumed the position of Acting Clerk a number of times during the past few years due to the illness of the late Mr. Bibby.

Mrs. Dawson, a member of St. Paul's Anglican Church Women and the Women's Institute, plans to visit friends and relatives, do some travelling and devote more time to church work and other community activities.

A formal presentation was made to Mrs. Dawson when co-workers, municipal officials and members of Council gathered recently to extend good wishes and regards.

It Was Fun....It Was A Success

The Lake Kashagawigamog First Annual Snowmobile Rally, sponsored by the Lake Kashagawigamog Tourist Association, was held on Sunday afternoon with fun and prizes for all the contestants.

Starting at the Haliburton Marine, they zig-zagged their way down the lake to given checkpoints, and had to find one "hidden" check-point. They were greeted by a bonfire and a welcoming grin on the face of each "Check-point Charlie" waiting for them at Halimar, Wright's Marina, Dunsford's Store, The Northern Eagle, Wig-A-Mog, and Royal View. For spying the clues, and scouting in to the hidden post at the Haliburton Air Service, they were awarded extra points. In spite of the fact that the names of the check-points are all well known in both Haliburton and Minden, some of the contestants admitted that when they were on the lake it sometimes took a bit of navigating to zoom in to the right bay, to "home in" on the target.

Back at the final check-point, Haliburton Marine, there was hot chocolate and all the helpings of delicious baked beans that the "trail riders" could eat.

After some mathematical wizardry by the "super computers" the points were tallied, and prizes awarded to all who took part. First prize of the Kashagawigamog Snowmobile Trophy and saddlebags were won by Ken and Dorothy Wilson of Haliburton; second prize of a snowmobile helmet was awarded to Joe and Pam Iles of Haliburton; and third prize of snowmobile mitts and goggles went to Jean and Mike Iles of Haliburton.

Special thanks of the Snowmobile Committee go to the officers of the Ontario Provincial Police and the volunteer patrols who helped so capably on the lake.

Sincere thanks, too, go to the following businesses who donated the prizes for the winners: Haliburton Marine, Lakeshore Marine, Wright's Grocery and Marina, Vance English (Shell Station), Ed Youngdale Texaco Ltd., Lloyd Moore (Imperial Esso Products), Curry Motors, Prentice Roads, Elstone's Sunoco Station, Western Tire, Percy Lymburner (Ski-Doo Dealer), Haliburton Golf Course, Haliburton Air Service, Halimar Resort and Deer Lodge.

HALIBURTON NEWS LETTER

The Haliburton Minor Hockey Parents' Party held at Royal Canadian Legion Hall in Haliburton last Friday evening was a great success.

Eleven-year-old Steven Main, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Main of Haliburton, won third prize in the junior section of the Amateur Contest held in conjunction with the Bobcaygeon Winter Carnival. The Amateur Contest was held on Sunday.

We understand that the snow is quite heavy on some of the cottage roofs. One resident who has been around some of the lakes reports that if we get another good rain some of these roofs will be caving in. If you are a cottage owner it would pay you to take a look to see if you need the roof shovelled off.

This week we would like to wish the best of luck to the Haliburton Huskies Junior 'D' hockey club and the Haliburton Midget team in their playoffs, and we hope that they can both continue on to win a championship.

We just received word that the Annual Glen Dart Memorial Hockey Tournament will be played at the Haliburton Arena on Friday night, March 17. This year, instead of the usual four games, it is expected that five games will be played with all the local House League teams competing. More details on this will be released next week.

Local Huskies Eliminate Bobcaygeon, Meet Bancroft In League Semi-Finals

The Haliburton Huskies have advanced to the O.H.A. Central Ontario Junior 'D' Hockey League semi-final playoffs against the Bancroft Jets after eliminating the Bobcaygeon Ti-Cats in three straight games. The Huskies played the Ti-Cats three times during the last week rolling up decisive scores of 9-3 last Wednesday night in Haliburton, 5-2 on Friday night in Bobcaygeon and 7-3 on Saturday night back here. The Huskies have been short-handed during the past few games and were still able to defeat the Ti-Cats last Saturday night with only 11 players in uniform. John Parish and Paul Dawson were both out on Saturday night with injuries suffered in Friday's contest; Floyd Henry joined Bob Woodcock and Larry LaPorte on defence for this game and did a fine job. The rest of the lineup was in rough shape as well, as Gerry McElwain played with the flu and Roger Bain and Bev Hicks had played hockey every night since the Tuesday before. With all the problems involved, the Huskies played a creditable game to sweep the best-of-five series in front of the 305 hometown fans.

With the local high school now swinging into exams this week, the Haliburton Huskies will be resting and trying to get back into shape for the semi-final series against the strong and well balanced Bancroft team. During the regular season the Huskies beat the Bancroft club three times on home ice and lost all three times on their ice; this will give the Jets an edge as they have the extra home game. The schedule has been set up and the Huskies will travel to Bancroft this Friday night for the first game at 8:30 p.m. The Jets will return to Haliburton on Saturday night for an 8:00 p.m. encounter, with the third game in Bancroft next Wednesday night at 8:00 o'clock. If the fourth and fifth games are necessary they will be in Haliburton on Saturday, March 11, at 8:00 p.m. and the final game will be in Bancroft on Sunday, March 12, at 2:30 p.m. The Huskies are confident that they can beat the Jets, but it will take an all-out effort by each member of the team. The Haliburton squad have a bad habit of missing many important scoring opportunities and as a result have been trying to work in too close to the net. Another problem is the amount of times that they give away the puck in the opposition's end of the ice. When the exams are over and their minds are back on the game, the Huskies will give any team in the league a tough series, including Bancroft and Lakefield.

The Huskies are about to make their move towards defense of their Ontario Junior 'D' Championship and are urging all local hockey fans to come out and give the local players the type of support that they deserve. If there are any people wanting to attend the game in Bancroft on Friday or next Wednesday please let Scotty LaRue know as soon as possible. There will be room on the players' bus, and if there is a good following there will be another bus available.

Be sure to be in attendance at the Haliburton Arena on Saturday night as the local Huskies take on the Bancroft Jets in what should be a thrilling hockey encounter between two very evenly matched clubs.

Midgets Advance To Semi-Finals

The Haliburton Midgets could well be on their way with an entry in the All-Ontario Midget 'D' hockey finals. They have now advanced to the semi-finals after a win over the Havelock team on Sunday night which was the third and deciding game of the series. This was a hard fought game with the final score ending as 4-2 after Haliburton had previously beaten Havelock by a 10-4 score in the first game played here in Haliburton and Havelock taking a 3-2 decision in the second game played at the Havelock Arena.

The first period of the final game was a tight one with Haliburton managing to sustain a 1-0 lead on a goal by Larry Robinson, and his proved to be the only marker as the period ended with that score. In the second frame the Haliburton club seemed to trail behind as Havelock controlled the play. Special congratulations should go to Louis O'Hara who played one of his strongest games ever in the nets for Haliburton — if it had not been for his superb netminding Haliburton could well have lost the game in this stanza. The Havelock club did manage to slip one goal by O'Hara and the second period ended in a 1-1 deadlock. The third period was an entirely different story as both teams came into their own. Havelock opened the scoring early in the period and it looked as though Haliburton might be defeated. About the half-way mark Haliburton tied up the score again on a goal by Mark Schell and Bev Hicks gave the Haliburton team the lead with three minutes remaining in the game. Havelock had several fine opportunities to tie the score but O'Hara continued his fine exhibition in the net as he stopped 22 shots in this period and Haliburton managed to hold the lead. With 24 seconds left in the game Roger Bain got the insurance marker for the Haliburton club. This made the score 4-2 and led the boys into the Ontario Minor Hockey Association semi-finals.

The team would like to take this opportunity to express their appreciation for the support they received on Sunday night, as this was a great factor in the outcome with the fans cheering the boys on to victory. The Midgets would certainly appreciate your support in helping them to put a team in the finals again this year.

Haliburton is now waiting for the winner of the Sutton and Creemore series, and will play the victorious club for the Central Ontario Championship. This series will probably start early next week.

Fifty Years Ago In Education by JOHN J. HEWITT

After reading the report of the Haliburton County Board of Education in January of 1972 I felt that now would be a suitable time to write a few items of 50 years ago and the conditions in those days, which were referred to as the "Gay Twenties" in Haliburton County.

I was pleased to see at least two of my school chums still active in affairs of our County. Wilfred Mason from Stanhope, who attended the little Red School with me at Boskung for our public education, and later on we were on the School Board together when school areas were first introduced in Stanhope, if not first in the County. A. R. Brown was the Inspector. J. M. Prentice, Principal of the West Guilford Elementary School, and I attended Continuation School together in Minden.

I would like to mention three of my former teachers whom we often see in the summer — they taught at Boskung when we attended school — Mrs. Vera Harrison, Mrs. Maurice White and Mrs. Millie Henderson. I have to give Mrs. Windsor a great deal of credit for my name being in the following list who successfully passed entrance 50 years ago (1922).

The following persons passed in Haliburton: Eileen Jones from Stanhope who headed the County, Lester Walling, Eileen Watt, Lila Cluff, Gertrude Boice, Jessie Peck, Annie Deacon, Irene Brohm, Viola Curry, Essie Robertson, Marjory Watt, Jack Roberts, Rufus Anderson, Lorna Johnson and Eric Robertson.

Those passing in Minden were: Ross Harrison, Marian Hogg, Everett Hicks, Gordon Brown, Lillian Archer, Clarence Conway, Clifford Cook, Walter Ireland, Pearl White, Daisy Carr, Roy Hughes, John J. Hewitt, Holly Dawson, Gertrude Harrison and Alice Stanhope.

Those passing in Wilberforce were: Will Sarginson, Irene Watson, Clinton Parker, Mary Pollard, Marian Shortt, Wallace Rowley and Jean Finlay.

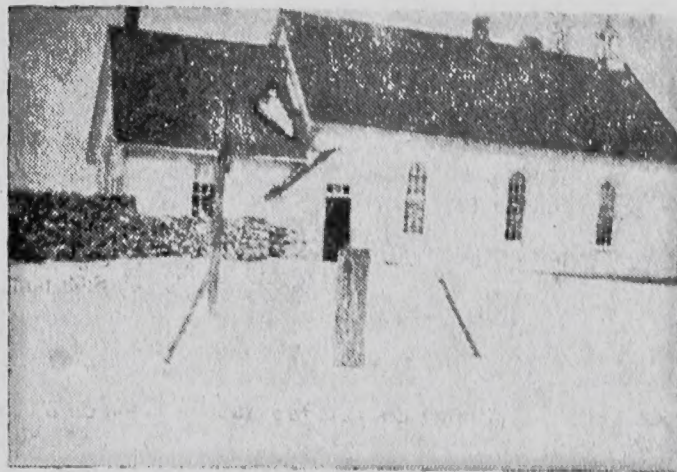

This list shows that 41 passed Department Exams out of the 63 who tried in June of 1922.

I regret if I have any errors or omissions, but I am unable to write and with one finger on the typewriter sometimes it's not too accurate.

In the early twenties great changes were being made to upgrade education in Haliburton County — over half the teachers were teaching under a permit received from Summer School. In order to continue, a great many attended Model School summer courses which gave them a third class certificate. The Inspector, George E. Pentland, insisted on better qualified teachers, so following the successful entrance class in 1922 there were 60 teachers with the following certificates: 2 with first class, 41 with second class, and 17 with third class. Four years later all the teachers with only third class certificates were laid off. I guess I was lucky, as I might have been one of the ones laid off — I will endeavour to tell you of my experience. The average salary was $812 a year, with 1407 pupils in the County.

In the fall of 1922 I continued on at the little Red School at Boskung where we still used slates and pencils — I still have some of the old hard ones, two of which would last you a full year if you didn't let them fall and break. They were worth two cents apiece but they were your own, as the school only supplied the classroom, blackboard and chalk, and about a three-foot pointer or hickory stick which was used in different ways. However, fifth class wasn't too much, as my year's results were small.

The following year I went to Minden School (the picture shows our heat supply which passed into a large box stove in each room). At New Year's we were fortunate to get a better qualified teacher, Gertrude Chown (Mrs. Ray Dawson) — they recently retired and live at Maple Lake. Under her capable management there were three classes with less than 20 pupils. The day started at nine o'clock and lasted until you completed your work; depending on the subjects you had, the day usually ran into late evening. I was in my second year, as well as taking some subjects I had missed the year before. However, the winters were long and very little in the way of recreation — everybody worked and enjoyed it. Haliburton County was a going concern with people all over the County engaged in hauling to the railroad as lumber, cordwood, pulpwood and tan bark were being shipped out daily. In the fall many carloads of cattle were shipped to market. Haliburton County produced much more than they consumed and they exported much more than they imported as they produced a great deal of the necessary things by the "do-it-yourself" method.

When the middle of February came around a Valentine's Party was a break in the winter, and with returns coming from work in January everyone had a dollar again and looking forward to spring again. Spring was a lively time with the camps breaking up and the work done. We had plenty of amusement — skating, sleigh rides, and a great many house parties with violin and square dances which lasted until daybreak.

The teachers were expected to take a leading part in community affairs, which they did by visiting homes and getting familiar with problems. They were skilled at helping to solve these problems whether it was school or otherwise — it made no difference, as they gave their time and talents to every cause.

When June came, and we had our year's work finished, the senior rooms had a picnic at the head of Gull Lake where we walked down and made our own fun. Mr. Crossley was our teacher and instructor, and I have a picture of him which was taken beside a stump fence going into Gull Lake. As I was going home to Boskung that night, I didn't stay for all the entertainment.

When our results came out two of us had completed our lower school and had got enough credits to admit us to Model School in Orillia, so by the middle of August we went to Orillia to start our course. After a few days the Department of Education decided to close the school so I returned to Boskung. All Model Schools were closed in Ontario, and the suggestion was made we go back and get Middle School but I quit and got a job on the farm and delivering mail every other day from Minden to Peterson's Corners, Boskung and Hall's Lake. The delivery was done with horses because after the middle of October the old Model T wasn't too reliable. When the mud and snow came some of the hills on the Old Peterson Road became quite a problem for horses.

Some of us were offered jobs in the bank at $5.00 a week — some accepted and went on to be successful managers, etc. Others returned to school. I drove mail and did odd jobs for some ten years. During the depression of the thirties it was very difficult to find a job where money was concerned, as you had to take what you could get. However, driving mail, I was able to keep up being close friends with teachers who used the stage coach for transportation. As a result of these friendships, I met and married Cora Cumming in 1935 and we started a business of our own at Buttermilk Falls.

I was elected to the Council and School Board, and it was during that time the School Area was established and school buses started running at $1.00 a trip and a later route to Minden at .10c a mile.

After another decade similar conditions existed so we wanted to be more definite about future education so we, as many other families, left Stanhope hoping for something more up-to-date.

I was Treasurer for the Township and School Board which gave me good inside information, and in those days the Township could not borrow money from the bank but the Treasurer and the Reeve could borrow privately — if they could find someone with money. The Treasurer had to make whatever arrangements necessary to see the teachers were paid monthly, even if he had to loan the money himself. For this work the Treasurer received $35.00 annually. When the High School was floating debentures we helped out and still hold a debenture. I am sure a great many students of 50 years ago have contributed much towards what we have in the County to better education.

I would be glad to see any of the students of the early twenties and reminisce about the past and present. We would welcome any who would like to call — we live at the intersection on Prince Street, Minden — and if you haven't the time to call then WAVE while passing.

Would anyone like to explain what education will be like in the next 50 years? I would be glad to hear the forecast, as I don't expect to be around to see it. I do hope to be around to see what it is like to get Old Age Security cheques; we were born too soon for the baby bonus. So stick around and enjoy those cheques, and let us put on a Golden Anniversary.

Enough said.

VERDICT IN: JALNA'S A MESS

Well, what do you think of the CBC's widely-touted Jalna series? Please don't answer that aloud. There are ladies present.

Ah, with what hopes we looked forward to a truly brilliant, all-Canadian grand slam in the world of television. All-Canadian cast, all-Canadian material, and a decent budget.

It would astonish the world, dazzle the screen, and all of the world's great networks would beat a path to the CBC door, clutching millions of pounds, francs, dollars and lira, begging and pleading for the right to reproduce it.

So much for hopes. The result merely shows that you can have on hand champagne, caviar and filet mignon, but if the cook doesn't know what he's doing, it ends up as watery, limp and lukewarm hash.

We have the champagne in the shape of gorgeous sets. We have the caviar in a collection of first-rate actors. And we have the filet in the rare beef of the original Jalna novels.

But what emerges on the screen is the most ham-fisted, club-footed, distorted, downright dog of a series anyone could dream up. Or nightmare up.

The champagne has been watered, the caviar has been fired from a shot-gun, and the rare beef has been minced into hamburger.

I warned the CBC, before the series began, that I would roast it if it weren't at least reasonably good. It's not even reasonably bad. Can you roast hash?

I watched the first episode with a mixture of disbelief and horror. The second was a little better, and hope sprang eternal. The flame was quickly smothered by the succeeding wet blankets.

I thought I knew the Jalna novels inside out. But the series is so baffling that, were it not for the names of the characters, I'd be willing to admit that it was the Bobbsey Twins series I was thinking of.

The most coherent parts of the Sunday night show are the commercials. But even here you have to keep a wary eye, because you're not quite sure they aren't part of the plot, so dense and unwieldy is the latter.

Those faint screams you hear from your set are not static. They are Miss Mazo de la Roche, author of the novels, shrieking epithets at the CBC, the director, and everyone else connected with the mutilation of her manuscripts.

Perhaps the most appalling aspect of the whole dreary business is that the CBC has actually sold the series to some retarded British network, on the understanding that it (the CBC) will produce another 13 episodes in the series.

This is not just flogging a dead horse. It is giving castor oil to someone who is dying of dysentery.

You may have picked up the misconception that I don't like the Jalna series. Quite wrong. I love it. It's the best comedy-mystery hour on the air.

Mind you, the comedy is of the black variety. It's rather like making jokes as the British Empire, on which the sun never sets, sinks slowly into the sunset.

But the mystery, though there is obviously no solution, is fascinating. Sorting out the characters alone is more fun than reading a Russian novel.

Who is married to whom? Why? When? Which are brothers, which cousins? Is Rennie's second wife Eden's first mistress? When is Rennie going to get a new nightie-gown?

The ramifications are endless. And hopeless. It's a soap opera with a schizophrenic at the helm.

I wish they'd sell the dam' estate and put Gran in a nursing home, and give Ed Sullivan a ring.

EXPLANATION OF THE WORD CHARISMATIC

I have been asked repeatedly to explain the word charismatic.

This word is a direct copy of the Greek word Saint Paul used in his first letter to the church at Corinth. Charismatic gifts are special blessings given to man by God.

God bestows blessings on every Christian to help him live his life. Christians are promised sufficient spiritual strength for all their needs. In particular, God assures special strength for each individual person's need as he performs the specific tasks he undertakes in promoting the spiritual advancement of his fellow man. This extra God-given strength may often be supernatural, that is, it can be a strength beyond what can be expected or explained in any natural sense.

Paul lists these gifts as comprising the word of wisdom, the word of knowledge, faith, the gift of healings, workings of miracles, prophecy, discerning of spirits, tongues and the interpretation of tongues. (See I Corinthians 12: 8-11).

These special blessings, or graces, or gifts are called charismatic gifts. Paul says these gifts are the way in which men may see the working of God's Holy Spirit.

Paul's actual Greek words, as translated into our English of today, may help: "Now, the matter about the gifts from the Holy Spirit," Paul writes in the opening verses of the twelfth chapter, "I want you to know the truth about them, my brothers . . . no one can declare 'Jesus is Lord' unless he is guided by the Holy Spirit. There are different kind of spiritual gifts (charismata), but the same Spirit gives them . . . The Spirit gives one man a message of wisdom, while to another man the same Spirit gives a message of knowledge. One and the same Spirit gives faith to one man, while to another man he gives the power to heal. The Spirit gives one man the power to work miracles; to another, the gift of speaking God's message; and to yet another, the ability to tell the difference between gifts that come from the Spirit and those that do not. To one man he gives the ability to speak in tongues; to another he gives the ability to explain what these strange sounds mean. But it is one and the same Spirit who does all this."

Frank A. Ford.

WHY HAS GOD PERMITTED WICKEDNESS?

The Bible shows that Satan has made use of the time allowed him by God to build up an organization in heaven and earth over which he rules. The extent of his control of the earth is indicated by the fact that he could offer Jesus all the kingdoms of the world in exchange for Jesus' worship (Matt. 4:8,9). That is why Satan is called "the ruler of this world" (John 16:11). History testifies that this has not brought peace, contentment and eternal life to mankind. It has brought the opposite; thousands of years of pain, suffering and death. The record of history and the dreadful state of affairs in the world today are proof that man has not succeeded in governing without Jehovah. Man has tried all kinds of government but as Ecclesiastes 8:9 says, "man has dominated man to his injury". So God's long permission of wickedness has proved beyond doubt that man's attempt to play God is a miserable failure. The inspired Bible writer Jeremiah rightly said, "I well know, O Jehovah, that to earthly man his way does not belong. It does not belong to man who is walking even to direct his step. Correct me, O Jehovah" — Jer. 10:23. Satan's influence over earth's affairs has brought disunity, wickedness and death. He has proved himself unfit to be the ruler of anything. So Jehovah is now fully justified in destroying this debased rebel along with all who have shared in his wicked deeds (Rom. 16:20). But what about the loyalty of God's creatures to Jehovah's loving rule and Satan's claim that all would turn away if put to the test?

Jehovah God knew that love never fails and he knew that some of mankind would serve him willingly, out of love and not because they were being bribed or forced. Many thousands have done this throughout the centuries. Job was one of these. Even though Satan brought terrific pressure against him and stripped him of his belongings, children and health, Job still declared:

YOU ARE WELCOME

"Until I expire I shall not take away my integrity." — Job 27:5. Also Jesus resisted all of Satan's temptations and bribes. Further when whipped by soldier guards and nailed to a cruel torture stake to die, Jesus held fast his loyalty to Jehovah. But Satan, his mind being twisted by selfishness and pride, has refused to slow down in his insane course. Although it has long since been proven that he was wrong and is a liar, he continues to persecute lovers of God (Rev. 12:17). Since Jesus' death many thousands of Christians have served Jehovah God because they loved him and wanted his loving rule over them. And right now, hundreds of thousands proclaim their loyalty to Jehovah as ruler (Rev. 7: 9,10). Their faithful keeping of Jehovah's word and their respect for his law have enabled them to live in contentment, in spite of all opposition from Satan. The unity, love and integrity displayed by God's servants throughout the centuries provide a mountain of evidence that Jehovah's way of ruling in love is the only right way, that man can stay loyal to him under the most severe test, and that Satan is the most monstrous liar of all time. But how long will the test continue?

Ray Zwidayk,
Haliburton.

A Poem Of Interest

My wife is in bed with a dose of the flu,
I'm doing house work and feeling quite blue.

If she doesn't get better really quite soon
I will hop on a plane and fly to the moon.
They say up there you don't pay any tax,
All you need do is sit and relax,
Just cross up your legs and let the winds blow,
Forget what is happening away down below.
I hope she don't croak, for we have some dates
To climb on a plane and fly to the States
Where we hope to spend three weeks or so,
For down there it never gets thirty below.
With no snow to shovel, no roofs to clean off,
And you seldom develop a very bad cough,
So the missus and I have decided to go
To spend a nice time in Sacramento.

Bert F. Harrison.

THE BIBLE
MUST SPEAK FOR ITSELF

Literal Or Figurative
We must learn to discriminate between the literal or figurative language of the Bible. Good common sense employed in the study of God's word will easily determine when the language is literal or figurative. Men do not ordinarily have any difficulty in determining what is figurative when they read the daily papers about ordinary events. Signs and symbols abound in the Bible especially in the prophecies and in the book of Revelation. There is no justification for basing a contention on such a passage when no plain positive statement of the word of God can be found elsewhere to support it. Jesus called Herod "an old fox", but we understand easily that this is a figure of speech. The prophets said that John the Baptist would come "levelling down the hills and filling the valleys and preparing the way", but we have no problem in understanding that John was not to be a road builder or a highway engineer. Yet many people will take such passages as Rev. 20:4-6 and, in spite of the highly symbolic language and the figures of speech abounding on every hand, will try to make literal application of the thousand year reign of Christ on this earth. The thousand year of Revelation 20 was a figure of speech denoting the complete victory over Jewish persecution and pagan oppression, and the reign mentioned was not "the reign of Christ" at all, but a particular reign of martyred saints "with Christ". John meant to prevent such use of the book when he said "If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues which are written in this book; and if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part from the tree of life, and out of the holy city and from the things which are written in this book." (Rev. 22:18,19.)

The Silence Of The Bible

Many theories and practices have been defended not on the ground of what the Bible does say but on the ground rather of what the Bible has not said. Thus a premium has been placed on the silence of the Bible. We need to learn what God has said cannot be properly respected unless we respect God's silence likewise. The Apostle John said, "Whosoever transgresseth and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God. He that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son." (1 Jno. 9). Paul wrote to the Corinthians that they were not to go beyond that which was written (1 Cor. 4:6). To presume upon God's will when he has not spoken and trespassing upon his silence is sinful and has always been condemned. We should be satisfied with what God has said, and abide within the testimony He has given. Simple faith in the word of God demands this of us.

Evangelist John S. Whitfield,

IN MEMORIAM

BAGSHAW - In loving memory of Thomas Charles Bagshaw, who passed away on February 26, 1950.

We seem to see in the soft, dim light

A face we loved the best, And think of him when the sun's last ray

Goes down in the far-off west; We miss you no less as the time passes on

Than we did on the day of your going,

For absence can never close the door of our hearts,

And the lamp of our love is still glowing;

Your heart was the truest in all the world,

Your love the best to recall, For no one on earth could take your place,

You are still the dearest of all. —Sadly missed and lovingly remembered by son Tom, daughter-in-law Marilyn and granddaughter Lisa.

PEACOCK - In loving memory of a dear son, Richard (Dick) Peacock, who passed away on March 7, 1969.

How we miss the welcome foot-steps

Of the one we loved so dear, Oft we listen for his coming,

Fully sure that he is near. —Sadly missed by Mother and Dad.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

1085 Sherwood Forest Drive,
Markham, Ontario.
February 20, 1972.

The Editors,
Haliburton County Echo and
The Minden Progress.

Dear Sirs:

I read the letters of Mr. J. E. Palmer and Marion Henry and felt compelled to write you.

Marion Henry points out how well off everyone is because of tourism. Well, it's been pointed out already that that is two out of twelve months. All the expansion, extra spending, new business and jobs she speaks of rapidly dwindle off when school opens. I come up here year-round and I see many places closed for winter — snowmobiles have changed that a little, lately, but not enough to have a real affect on the area unemployment and welfare statistics.

In comparing the grant size to that of the Muskokas, she doesn't mention a few details. The Muskokas have everything that we have here, BUT — THEIR C. of C. promoted the area as good for industry besides tourism! Over the past few years, with the help of Federal and Provincial Government start-up loans, they have attracted: (1) Canadian Motor Lamp Ltd. - 150 employees, (2) Canadian Foils Ltd. (Division of Alcan) - 65 employees, (3) Corning Glass Works Ltd. - 240 employees, (4) Alcan Wire & Cable Ltd. - (new) to employ over 200 within four years of start-up. All these are in the Bracebridge area. Huntsville has a Swedish Plastics firm operating there with 55 people employed and Gravenhurst has Rubberset Industries with 150 employees. There are also smaller places employing 50 or less people. These are non-polluting industries.

This C. of C. says distance from major consuming markets is the main factor in not having industry here, yet this area is closer than Bracebridge is to some of their markets! No wonder Muskoka can give $25,000 to their C. of C. They get the money now because they had the foresight to not put all their eggs in one basket, i.e. tourism.

The basic problem is that the C. of C. here is mostly people in the tourist industry who cannot see the dollar benefit they would derive from other types of industry in the area; therefore are not interested.

The elected representatives have a responsibility to all people in the area, and must look long and hard at where they put tax dollars. So I say to Mr. Palmer and Marion Henry and their fellow C. of C. members, raise your sights; get out of the rut! Let new industry in (because you haven't been). Forget about more lobbyists at Queen Park, there's too many now! When you do all this, then perhaps the Haliburton C. of C. will do so well it won't have to depend on taxpayers' money to supplement its own members' dues.

Sincerely,
Robert Skakie.

Carnarvon, Ontario.
February 28, 1972.

To The Editor:

On behalf of those who must drive cars and trucks in winter, may I ask of that more important privileged group of operators of those unmuffled motorized "scorpions" who seem to have enough influence to do as they please and operate freely wherever and whenever they choose if the rest of us must move strictly at our own peril on wheels or on foot.

When approaching a curve on a section of wide hard packed road I was forced almost to stop on the right shoulder to avoid a head-on crash with a demented idiot, who, while leading a parade of four at very high speed, seemed unable to get straightened out of the curve and came directly at me — a close call!

Recently my wife and I drove out to the highway. The snow comb is piled high and we stopped and looked both ways for traffic. Seeing none, we had just began to roll slowly ahead when — zip — and a machine shot past our bumper leaving not a second between life and a probable death. It had been hugging the comb to keep off the gravel, and carried no flag or warning to give notice of its presence.

A truck driver told me that yesterday, on reaching the crest of a hill, he had met two machines side by side and can't figure how he passed between them.

Accident figures quoted today on the radio stated that the great majority of serious snow machine accidents are in collision with cars or trucks.

Vinton Loucks was telling me that, when carrying Her Majesty's mail recently, his truck was attacked by two females operating a "scorpion" and he was arranging to have the truck repaired. Our conversation was cut off twice by two infernal machines crossing bare pavement at the corner of Minden's main street, with all the attention attracting clamour they could muster. A few minutes later there was a repetition of the same sort of hullabaloo at the next corner. Hospitals, homes, churches and funeral homes, when in service, are not immune.

My neighbour had his two barricades thrown aside recently when they obstructed passage of five marauders over his property.

On "Cross Country Check-up" some weeks ago a call from an Arctic community said that the machines are very useful up there but are forbidden to operate from 1:00 to 6:00 a.m. in that locality — but not Haliburton County.

All this is with due respect for the valuable part that snow machines can and do play in emergencies and legitimate services. They are a great asset to many people but unfortunately the lunatic fringe seems to be widening.

Second class citizens unite!!

C. H. Irwin.

How Cheap Can You Get?

There's one thing that is really bothering us this week and that is the fact that some people and some organizations think that the Haliburton County Echo is a charitable institution. They seem to think that they can put anything in the paper and it should be free. We have expenses the same as any other business and we must count on the advertising revenue to keep this paper rolling.

From time to time we receive copy under the heading of "News Release" — this so called news comes from various organizations locally and from other centres. It is not news; it's strictly advertising which should be paid for. There's quite a difference between free publicity and advertising — it's news when the event is over but it's not news to put it in before. That's strictly advertising.

It is our opinion that the Town of Lindsay must have a lot of poor organizations because they can never seem to scrape up enough money to put in an advertisement. We are virtually swamped at different times with these so called news releases from Lindsay. During the past two weeks we have been receiving news release upon news release from Theatre '72 hosted by the Lindsay Little Theatre at the Academy Theatre in Lindsay. These news releases — which are nothing but straight advertising — should be ads and be paid for, so they have been hitting our wastepaper basket. If this organization can't afford to pay for some advertising in order to receive publicity for their plays then they should fold up and forget about it. Why should we have to subsidize them with free news releases? Just how cheap can you get!

It has been our policy, and still is, that no releases will be going into this newspaper unless accompanied by an advertisement. If any group can't afford to pay for an ad to publicize their event they should forget about having it.

GUEST EDITORIAL...

A Near Tragedy

In recent weeks an incident occurred in the Forestry School area that deserves some criticism of the events preceeding the actual occurrence.

It appears that some pupils of an elementary school from the Scarborough area visited the Forestry School for a weekend of recreation. The adventure nearly proved to be fatal to one teenage boy.

From the information I gathered, this seems to be the story. Apparently this boy left the group at the school around 4:30 p.m. and started north on Highway 35 for a walk. He was wearing a pair of those cowboy type boots about seven or eight inches high and open around the leg; a mighty poor outfit for deep snow in zero weather. About 5:30 when the call came for supper he was missed and the alarm went out, as the mercury was dropping fast and time was of an essence in the search. The Ontario Provincial Police evidently had a man in the area, but the Minden office was contacted for extra help — this was not forthcoming. Evidently, the officer in charge was of the opinion that their man was available, but he did not appear to my knowledge. However, Roy McKay, the officer in charge of the Lands and Forests office at Dorset, hearing of the case turned out his snowmobile and made for the Forestry School. Getting briefed there on the case, he set out north on 35 Highway and went quite a distance, feeling the lad must have hitchhiked a ride or he would have overtaken him or found his tracks. However, he pursued his course a little farther and then noted the tracks of the boy heading for the Black River to the west of the highway. He immediately followed the river and met the lad returning some distance from his old trail. He was in a bad way — the boots had filled with snow, both his feet were frozen, and he was nearing exhaustion. Mr. McKay moved fast and had the lad in a hospital in as short a time as possible.

In all probability he will lose his toes, but I would think he may not lose his feet as they seemed to respond to treatment. In my estimation this lad would not have survived in some 15 degrees below zero weather another hour.

I find it necessary to give some strong criticism of this whole matter. First, the parents should have seen that this boy had proper footwear for the outing. Secondly, the individual in charge of the group should have noted his absence earlier; and thirdly, I feel the O.P.P. could have showed more interest despite their one representative who was in the area — a life was at stake.

In this Haliburton land old Mother Nature gets pretty grim in February. No longer is it the lovely rolling waters of our lakes, as the land is hard and often visibility is cut to a few feet owing to storm conditions. Only the long time residents who have experienced some of the blizzards on our lakes and plains can estimate the power of this winter climate.

We all give thanks for this boy's rescue, and a word of praise must be given to Roy McKay.

Clayton Rogers,
Moorefield Acres, Carnarvon.

Breathing Vapors

Breathing any air these days can be hazardous. But the air in operating rooms may be especially damaging for women who work there.

Anesthetic vapors are associated with a high rate of miscarriage among surgical nurses and female anesthetists. Research at Stanford University showed that nearly 30 per cent of pregnancies among surgical nurses ended in miscarriages as compared with nine per cent among other nurses. Female anesthetists had a 38 per cent miscarriage rate compared with 10 per cent among women doctors in non-surgical specialties.

Dr. David L. Bruce of Northwestern University says the statistics do not prove a cause-and-effect relationship between the vapors and spontaneous abortion. But he points out that inhaled fumes are retained in the body for some time and may inflict harm. Further, experiments with animals have produced similar results. The offspring of rodents exposed to anesthetic vapors have demonstrated a significantly high percentage of birth defects.

Precautions should be taken to reduce the exposure of operating room personnel, especially the women, to anesthetics, says Dr. Bruce. At Stanford, special devices have already been installed in all surgical rooms to trap and expel damaging gases.

All kinds of people are paying more and more attention to the air they breathe these days. And with good reason. The quality of air may very well affect us and our children as well as generations to come.

Join the fight against polluted air. Check with your local tuberculosis and respiratory disease association to find out what you can do to clean up the air around us. It's a matter of life and breath.

Wilberforce Bests Minden In Ringette

Last Tuesday afternoon the Wilberforce Arena was the battleground for girls' ringette as the girls from Minden accepted a challenge from the Wilberforce gals but were defeated by the score of 7-1. Wilberforce was badly outplayed in the first 15 minutes but were held in the game by goaltender Caroline Stamp who kicked out several blistering drives until her team found their skating legs. Led by Kim Martin's three goals and singletons by Kathy Martin, Cindy Daniels, Jayne Godfrey and Joanne Simmons the Wilberforce group finally triumphed. It was an excellent game, a bit on the rough side, but fun for fans and players alike.

Congratulations should go to the Minden girls for their fine effort in a game they really only learned fifteen minutes before game time.

There will be a rematch in Minden in the near future but revenge is being sought in the form of a basketball game. This is something the Wilberforce crew have no facilities for so it should be some contest. Hopefully a boys' basketball game will follow the girls' game and the afternoon will be topped off with a staff volleyball game with the Minden teachers taking on the Wilberforce staff.
